TWO DIVORCE SUITS, ONE DAY'S RECORD

G. G. Wilson of Newport News
Would be Free From His Wife Who Deserted Him.

WOMAN NOW LIVING IN PORTSMOUTH

Mrs. Ida Carmel Who Makes Her Home in Baltimore Wants Alimony and Desires to Have Her Bonds of Matrimony Broken That Bind Her to Husband Who Lives Here.

Asserting that his wife has wilfully deserted him and is now living in Portsmouth, Mr. G. G. Wilson, of Newport News, has, through his attorney, Mr. Fay S. Collier, begun suit for an absolute divorce from Mrs. Laura E. Wilson in the Elizabeth City county Circuit Court.

The Wilsons lived at Salters' Creek until Mrs. Wilson returned to her home in Portsmouth. She is now clerking in a store in that city. Mrs. Ida Carmel, who lives in Baltimore, has brought suit in the Circuit Court asking for an absolute divorce, with alimony, from her husband, Mr. Harry A. Carmel, who now lives in Hampton. Desertion is charged in this case also. Mrs. Carmel says she married her husband in Baltimore February, 1899, and that he deserted her in March, 1903. She says Mr. Carmel came to Hampton from Baltimore, after deserting her. Mr. F. S. Collier represents Mrs. Carmel.

THE CLEAN-SWEEP SALE

With Its Peerless Attractions in Every Department.

The second week of the Clean-Sweep Sale of course means diminished quantities, but in practically every instance assortments and sizes are yet complete, and lowered prices make the attractions greater. Consider not alone the reductions, but the merchandise that is offered at these prices, for this is our regular stock up to the standard that has gained for this establishment the prestige it enjoys.

PLECKER BUYS HOTEL FROM THE TRUSTEE

Guests of the Augusta Are Happy
Once More as the House
Will Not be Closed.

HUNDLEY TO MANAGE THE PLACE

Former Proprietor Takes the Property Back to Protect His Own Interests—New Manager Has Had Considerable Experience in the Business—May Lease the House.

The tangle in the affairs of the Augusta hotel were adjusted yesterday afternoon, when Dr. Walter A. Plecker, the former owner of the hotel, purchased the property from Mr. Howard S. Thompson, the trustee.

Dr. Plecker assumed control of the property immediately and put Mr.
C. F. Hundley, of Newport News, in charge of the management. It is understood that Mr. Hundley will tomorrow take up the question of leasing the hotel for a short period, with the view to finally purchasing the property.

Dr. Plecker bought in the property from the receiver in order to save himself. He was the largest creditor of Colonel Thompson, having disposed of the property to that gentleman last February.

It is proposed to make many improvements in the hotel and to make the Augusta one of the best and most inviting hotels on this side of Hampton Roads.

Early yesterday morning Dr. Plecker sent word to the guests of the hotel that he would probably take charge again and told them that they need not have any fears for getting supper, as well as all other meals in the hotel.

It is understood that Dr. Plecker has purchased the property at a satisfactory price to himself and the trustee of Colonel Thompson.
